Review Process

1. All submitted papers will be peer-reviewed by three reviewers from the Program/Technical Committee members
2. Papers are to be reviewed based on full papers, not abstracts.

Additional Requirements

If your paper is accepted for publication at this conference, you will need to adhere to the requirements of the conference proceedings publications and sign the copyright form. One of the conditions for the paper to be published is attending the conference and presenting the paper. Unless otherwise there is an emergency, the paper will not be published if the author does not present it during the conference.

COVID-19 Updates

The health and safety of all conference participants are of paramount importance to the conference organizers. In the event issues relating to COVID-19, or other health-related matters, prevent the conference being held at the HCT-Dubai Men's campus/Hybrid, alternative measures will be put in place to enable authors to present their papers virtually
